Panel Discussions + Presentations + Workshops

GCS Group

GCS Group grew from humble beginnings as Neil Wood, Founder and Chairman of the Group starting operations in Melbourne Australia in 1976.

With more than 40 years pioneering the international debt collection industry, including foundation roles in many of the leading industry associations around the world, Neil is considered by many to be a godfather of the industry.

Neil has shared his experience with his son Adam Wood, CEO who is equipped with the skills and knowledge of our industry with a view to leading the generational change. In close consultation with Neil, Adam is dedicated to challenging the status quo of international credit and risk management standards.

Now, the GCS Group extends into over 100 countries, and embraces leading edge information and communication technology platforms, supported by an industry based globally accepted governance, risk, compliance and quality framework, recognized by leading organizations around the world.
